General:

Thank you to our Congregational Treasurer, David Radcliffe for compiling the end of your accounts (2022). If you have yet to submit your organisation's accounts, please do so as soon as possible as David will be presenting to the Congregational Committee this Monday, 23rd January. Thanks to every volunteer serving in our organisations, not least, those who are treasurers. May the LORD be glorified through all our activities.

The PCI are advertising for the Financial Secretary (i.e. PCI's Senior Financial Officer). The post holder will provide advice & guidance to the General Assembly & its Councils, as well as the wider Church, including Presbyteries and Congregations as appropriate, on financial matters, in line with legal requirements and decisions of the General Assembly. The post holder will also line manage staff within the department and contribute to the administration and formulation of policies, strategies and plans as a member of the senior management team and support of the General Assembly, its Councils and Committees.
Application Packs are available for download under "PCI jobs" at www.presbyterianireland.org/jobs
Applications should be returned to the Personnel Department, not later than 4.00 p.m. on Fri 27th Jan.

Pray that a suitable candidate for this extremely important post might emerge from the appointment process, but also make potential candidates aware of this opportunity, both those who might be in your congregation or those known to you in other ways!!
